Prom?

By:Brittany Atkinson

We all know that Prom is quickly approaching and it is always interesting to hear about all the creative ways that people are being asked. This article is a special tribute to get all of those cute and funny stories out there. Enjoy!

One day Alexa Polsdorfer went to the salon to get her nails done. Her stylist was able to persuade her to have a surprise design done on her nails. When she finished Alexa looked down to see the words "Prom?" written on her nails. Just then Mason Knipp walked out with a bouquet of flowers.

Hunter Carnahan took his girlfriend, Lexi Noll, shopping one day. They walked into American Eagle and spent some time picking through the clothes. Hunter found a few items and went back to try them on. When he came out Lexi was surprised to see that he was wearing a shirt saying, "Lexi, will you go to prom with Hunter?".

Connor Gerken was hanging out with Chloe Knapp one day when he suggested that they head over to Logan Bueher's house to hangout with some friends. She agreed and they headed over there. Little did she know that Hunter Carnahan, Gavin Kline, Trey Armbrrecht, Alex Hoffman, and Logan were busy painting their bodies. When they arrived Connor told Chloe to wait in the car so he could check to see if they were still there. The guys quickly painted a yes and no check box on his chest. They then opened the garage door and all stood there for Chloe to see.

Would You Rather

By: Hannah Barrett and Alexa Polsdorfer

Would you rather rule the world OR live in a world with no problems?

7 students said they would rule the world

15 students said they would live in a world with no problems

Candace Sayers: "No problems, because all the problems would be your fault."

Kam Pohlman: "Rule the world, I would create a problem free world."

Henry Elling: "Ruling the world would be killing two birds with one stone, by making no problems."

Dylan Sexton: "Rule the world because I am a beast."

Clare Long: "I would rule the world, because...well, why wouldn't you?"

Logan Meyer: "No problems, because then you would have to deal with everyone's problems."

The 2014 Liberty Center FFA Banquet

On Thursday, March 27 the Liberty Center FFA Chapter held their 81st banquet. The banquet took place in the high school cafeteria and on the menu was pulled pork, red skin potatoes, corn, and salad. Mr. Starkey's food science class marinated, smoked, and pulled the pork for the meal. The banquet went very smoothly and the highlight of the night was announcing the scholarship winners. The Alumni scholarships went to Taylor Overmier, Kristi Walker, and Cody Kaiser. Kristi Walker was also the winner of the Chambers' Family scholarship, and the Carl Rohrs Memorial scholarships. The new officers were sworn in and that concluded the 2014 Liberty Center FFA banquet.

Mystery Person

By: Sarah Yaney

This issue's mystery person is a Junior. He/She is involved in a fall and winter sport. This person stands at 5'5"<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>. He/She has two older siblings. This person has brown hair and brown eyes. His/Her favorite animal is a cow, and contradicting enough, their favorite food is steak. This person drives a blue jeep to school.

*See Sarah Yaney to make a guess for a prize!

*Last issue's mystery person was Allison Crawford

Spanish Club

By: Rachel Winterfeld

Hola everybody! Mrs. Soto would like you all to know that she will have t-shirt order forms for Spanish club members in her classroom for anyone who is interested in buying one.

Club officers will be planning the Mud Hens trip for May 12 for Spanish club members. Mrs. Soto will make exceptions for students in Spanish who are not in Spanish club to join now to go to the game. Spanish club fees are $5 per person. Please join if you haven't already! :)

If you were on The Voice and all four judges turned around who would you choose as your judge?

Below are the responses of some Liberty Center students:

Paige Danford: I would pick Adam because he is cute

Kam Pohlman: No comment

Candace Sayers: I would pick Adam because he is a really really good singer;)

Zach Sidel: I would pick Blake because I like to listen to country music

Haleigh Hoffman: I would pick Usher because I could listen to his music all day

Logan Meyer: I would pick Blake because he is a country man and I am a country man, too

Mrs. Tejkl: I would pick Adam because he is cute

Nick Demaline: I would pick Shakira because she has a lovely voice

Rachel Winterfeld: I would pick Adam Le-FINE

Hunter Carnahan: I would pick Shakira because of her accent and she's hot

Movies

This weekend movies coming out include Rio 2, and Draft Day. On the day of the NFL Draft, general manager Sonny Weaver (Kevin Costner) has the opportunity to save football in Cleveland when he trades for the number one pick. He must quickly decide what he's willing to sacrifice in pursuit of perfection as the lines between his personal and professional life become blurred on a life-changing day for a few hundred young men with dreams of playing in the NFL.

Debate

If you hit it big and win the lottery what would you do? Would you go out and tell your friends and family right away or would you keep it a secret and not tell anyone? The hit show, The Lottery Changed My Life on TLC shows how the lottery can actually be a curse. But does it always have to be?

By: Sarah Yaney

In my opinion, going out and telling your friends and family about your winnings is not a bad thing. I would first make sure to pay off any of my debts if I had any, and make sure I was financially stable. Then I believe you could tell others. If you had an abundance of money and you knew a family member needed some help for example, wouldn't you feel good about yourself if you were able to help them? Some people may try to take advantage of you and your money, but overall you are the one who can decide if you hand it out or you don't.

By: Andrea Weirauch

On the contrary I would not be telling my family or friends. I wouldn't want to deal with all the attention and all of the people asking me for my money. The show The Lottery Changed My Life opened my eyes up to the problems that people face when they win the lottery and tell everyone. I think it would be fun to be on the news all across the nation for about a day because I'm sure I would be getting letters, emails, and phone calls about how people are in such need for the money that I just won. Now I wouldn't be able to keep it a complete secret, I would tell my dad and I would hire an investor to help me to invest my money so that there would be no way I would spend it all and I would continue to make money. Although winning the lottery is a far fetched idea, that would be my plan if I ever did get lucky and hit it big.

Recent News Of LC

By: Rachel Winterfeld

Liberty Center students now have to complete three days of blizzard bags to make up missed school days. Students will also have to stay at school until 3:30 everyday up until April 22. The 30 extra minutes a day will make up two missed school days the students would have had to make up at the end of the year.

Liberty Center high school students performed the musical Godspell April 3, 4, and 5. The musical was a success. There weren't as many people there Thursday as there were Friday and Saturday. Great job to the students who performed in the musical!

Wrestling

Wrestling Banquet

By: Hunter Carnahan

At the end of the wrestling season, the wrestlers get together and make a banquet to see all of the accomplishments. There were multiple awards given out like Mason Knipp getting the MVP and Henry Elling getting most team points, takedowns, and near fall points. All of the seniors excluding Gavin Kline earned their 4th year varsity award and Zane Peterson earned the most valuable freshman. Finally Kody Kregulka earned the most improved wrestler. At the end of the day, there were over 6 seniors being honored and the coaches made a little movie about them too.

Tiger Baseball Capturing A Win

By: Alexa Polsdorfer

The 2014 baseball season has finally started! The varsity team includes seniors Mason Knipp and Kaleb Pohlman. Juniors include Trevor Geahlan, Dylan Clendenin, Jarren Altman, Deric Combs, Logan Vicars Paul Clawson Logan Meyer, and Zach Sidel. Sophomores are Jake Cox, Dylan Sexton, Chase Hill, and Alex Hamilton.

This week the Tiger baseball team was scheduled to play Monday the first of April against the Tinora Rams. Unfortunately the game was cancelled due to weather purposes.

Tuesday, April 2, the Tigers took on the Bulldogs of Edgerton. The first two innings were a little tough for the Tigers. After pulling it together and putting Kaleb Pohlman on the mound, the Tigers came back with a 4-3 win.

Tiger Tracksters Open Up Season at Liberty Benton

On an extremely cold, windy, and wet Friday night the Tigers traveled down to Findlay to compete in the Liberty Benton relays. This meet is different from usual invites because all times, distances, and heights are added together and the athletes compete as a team rather than as individuals. Both boys and girls teams brought home overall 4th place finishes. First place finishes for the girls were the 4x1600, Distance Medley, and the Discus. First place finishes for the boys were the Shot.

On April 8, the Tigers hosted a quad with Swanton, Archbold, and Evergreen. It was a beautiful day with only a slight breeze. Cheyenne Rentschler placed first in pole vault for the Tigers and brought home a new school record of 9'7". Nick Demaline also set a new school record in the shot put with a throw of 62'8". The teams both finished 2nd.

Tiger of the Week

By: Brittany Atkinson and Andrea Weirauch

This week's overachiever goes to Katie Gilson for jacking a home run on her first at bat of the season. Unlike many other softball athletes, Katie is steroid free and uses no supplements. Even with this disadvantage she is still dominating the field. Gilson also plays first base and occasionally pitches. Wow, what a well-rounded athlete! Katie has been called the next Miguel Cabrera and will be continuing to shred the competition throughout the season.

Teacher Spotlight

By: Kennedy Wood

One of our super smart math teachers is in the spotlight this week. It's the one and only Mr. Grim. Mr. Grim has been providing Liberty Center students with tons of math knowledge for 18 years. His favorite part about his job is, of course, solving equations and graphing. In his spare time, Mr. Grim enjoys golfing, fishing, eating, and using the quadratic formula. If Mr. Grim could have any other job in the world, he would become an astronaut. If that failed, he would become a mattress tester.

Alert: Longer School Day Officially in Effect

By: Gaby Hawkins

With this past winter basically being the movie Frozen come to life, certain measures need to be taken to downset the effects of the days of school missed. The decision was made that from now until April 22nd, there will be a 30 minute 'home room' where we will stay until 3:30 working on homework. By the end of every week, we will earn about an hour and a half. So from now until the 22nd, we will earn two make up days in the bank.

Personally, I believe that it's almost a waste because it cuts into time for after school activities and makes everything start later and go later. Being a busy high school student myself, and barely having time to be home anyway, it makes school nights even longer for highly involved students. It is however, a great opportunity to do some homework at school, so there is a chance to get some help from the teacher that you have homework for if you need questions answered. On the other hand, 30 minutes doesn't give adequate time to really get much done. It feels as though as soon as you get into your work, the bell is already ringing for you to go home. There is nothing more annoying than having to stop, midthought, doing your homework. When you pick it back up later, your train of thought is gone. Although it may seem like a waste, it is better to make up the days now. That way we won't have to go to school until next winter, and we can actually enjoy the nice weather.
